Luke 16:8 – “For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light.” The sons of this world know that they should use their wealth wisely to provide for their future. Shouldn’t we “sons of light” know that the wealth God has allowed us to manage should be managed for God’s purposes in the roles He has given us in Church, home, and society? Stewardship Ministry <https://www.lcms.org/resources>

“Let us stand firm for the rights of all people, especially for the most vulnerable, defenseless of them all, the unborn children ... The Church has confessed from the beginning that each life is created by God, that human life is the supreme gift of the Creator. Human life is not given unconditionally, but is given under the condition that we will be responsible for preserving it.” Abbot Tryphon, Vashon Island, Washington – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Luke 16:1-15: When it comes to using our finances, most times we don’t think of it in an evangelism sense. The Lord uses a parable to teach His disciples about being shrewd in the age in which we live. What if the world knew that your finances were dedicated to the sharing of the Gospel? How shrewd would that be? Jesus talks more about money in His parables than any other medium because He knows that money can get between us and Him. Knowing this, the Good News should be applied to our money. We are to be devoted to God rather than to money. Our priority is to be right with God. We cannot serve two masters. Our “shrewdness” can be best applied to the world as they see us live the good News in how we apply it to the use of our money. Isn’t it wonderful that we can proclaim the Good News and use our money at the same time?! Thanks be to God for all the riches He has given to us. Witness & Outreach

With this being said, we are wondering if anyone would be willing to help us out with covering any of the cost of the bus bill. If anyone could donate toward this expense, we and our preschoolers would greatly appreciate it! These kids get so much joy and excitement out of being able to ride a big yellow bus!
