Luke 10:20 – “But rejoice that your names are written in heaven.” No one can snatch us out of the nail-marked hands of Jesus. He has redeemed us and claimed us as His own. As those whose names are written in heaven, we seek to live heavenly lives here on earth. This is the foundation of all our good works, including the good work of faithfully supporting the work of the Church. It’s our joy in having been redeemed by the Lord through the activity of the Church that motivates us to support the Church. Stewardship Ministry <https://www.lcms.org/resources>

“Father, You are the Author of life, and we thank You for the gift that it is. Forgive us when we devalue it in any way. Heal our land from the scourge of legalized abortion and turn our hearts back to profound respect for all life. In Jesus’ name. Amen.” Duane Matz, former lay pastor with the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations (AFLC) and Christian radio announcer – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Luke 10:1-20: In Jesus’ day, the harvest was plentiful, but the workers were few. He told His followers to pray that the Lord of the harvest would send out more workers. What can we do to assist in providing for more workers? We can go out ourselves and make the most of every opportunity to share the Good News of Jesus with people who are still in spiritual darkness. We can support the outreach efforts by providing financial support for evangelism. We can encourage students to seek out professional church work at our Synodical universities. The possibilities are numerous - and the harvest is plentiful. Pray. Pray. Pray. Pray that the Lord will send out more workers, beginning with you, with a host of others, because the harvest is ripe. Thanks be to God. Witness & Outreach

Prayer Request Cards are on the guest book stand, in the Friendship Registers located in the pews, or in the mailbox located outside the church office door. If you have a prayer request at any time, please contact the office. Completed cards may be put in the offering basket or given to an Elder. Prayer requests may be resubmitted.

Why is there a rail in the front of the church?

That railing you see up near the altar is the altar rail. Some churches might even have a chancel rail a few steps away from the altar rail nearer to the congregation. Does your church have both of these rails?

What are these rails used for?

The chancel rail divides the church into two important parts: the "nave," which is the largest part of the church where the congregation sits; and the "chancel," which is the part of the church where the altar is located. The altar rail separates the altar from the rest of the chancel. It used to be, back in the Middle Ages, these rails were important for separating the congregation from the pastor or priest. As our understanding of the Lord's Supper changed, the rails began to be used for more practical purposes. They became helpful places for God's people to kneel and receive His wonderful gifts. They are also used for confirmation, marriages, and other events in the church.

Parents: Before or after the service, direct your children's attention to the chancel and altar rails. Allow them to walk up to the rails in order to get a better look. Encourage them to make the sign of the cross, kneel and pray. Remind them to be reverent in God's holy place.
