Luke 10:25 – “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” There is nothing right about this question. What shall I do to inherit? What can you do to inherit the throne of England? You can’t do anything to gain it. An inheritance comes by family ties, not deeds. Our deeds follow and result from our family ties. The Father calls us His own children. So, we inherit eternal life by grace, and we seek to live out our new calling as the Father’s children with our good works. Stewardship Ministry <https://www.lcms.org/resources>

“‘Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you,’ says God. Each life, before even coming into existence, God has cast His gaze upon, delighting in having us hear His voice and that we would be led home to Him.” Rev. Perry Hart, guest speaker on “The Lutheran Hour” – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Luke 10:25-37: The Parable of the Good Samaritan reminds us that in loving our neighbors, we care not just for their physical needs, but also for their spiritual needs. What a joy it will be in eternity to have a “neighbor” come up to us and thank us for sharing the Good News of salvation found in Jesus alone. Witness & Outreach

Lutheran World Relief – School Kits Project

There will be opportunity again this year to fill school kits for Lutheran World Relief. Something as simple as a school kit can help further a child's education and lead to a better life for them, their families and their communities! This year bags will be provided to take home, fill from a list of needed supplies and return when complete. Watch for more detailed information in upcoming bulletins and newsletters, especially as school supplies go on sale.

Fill The Bag: As many of you know, Dennis Kuntz, has experienced a several life changing health issues. We would like to coordinate the gathering of items for a bag for Dennis. Personal items, gift cards for gas, food, cash--whatever you wish to contribute is welcome. There is a bag in the church office to put donations in.
