Luke 12:24 – “Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them.” God feeds the birds of the air. This we know. It’s just that, as one wit put it, God sometimes feeds the birds ... to the cats. Yes, crosses and hardships will always come. Christ said that no disciple is above his Master. But, through it all, the Lord cares for us, and He calls upon us to entrust ourselves to that care. He really is our Father, and He really will guard and keep us through whatever this life throws at us. And, in the end, we shall receive the gift of eternal life. “We are to long for the Lord’s coming and His presence. This longing can be cultivated through the Word and prayer. Immerse yourself in the Psalms. ‘Taste and see that the Lord is good.’ He will fill the hungry with good things.” James M. Kushiner, The Fellowship of St. James – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Luke 12:22-34: Jesus tells us that where our treasure is, there our hearts will also be. Jesus is our “Priceless Treasure” who helps us to seek the most important things in life, like a saving faith in Jesus. Our witness to the Good News of salvation in Jesus is one of the richest possessions we can share. May we share our faith and hope with joy and excitement. Who can you make rich today by sharing Christ with them? God’s grace has made you overflowing in riches to share with others today with the Good News of salvation. Witness & Outreach

Prayer Request Cards are on the guest book stand, in the Friendship Registers located in the pews, or in the mailbox located outside the church office door. If you have a prayer request at any time, please contact the office. Completed cards may be put in the offering basket or given to an Elder. Prayer requests may be resubmitted.

The bags may be taken home and returned once they are filled from a provided list of needed supplies. Please contact Laura Isaacson or Rosie Wolbrink with any questions.

Lutheran Center for Religious Liberty: LCRL is a religious Liberty organization in Washington D.C. that provides support to those working to protect our religious Liberty on the Hill. They are an educational resource to our Churches, Schools and Universities. We advocate for our churches, pastors and laypeople. Why? Because the government is encroaching more and more into the arena of the Church and its work, and God’s people have a role not only in sharing the Gospel, but in helping society/culture in being humane, civil, and temporally just. For more information or to donate to LCRL please see their website @ LCRLFreedom.org.

KIDS IN THE DIVINE SERVICE

What is the "church"?

When someone says the word "church," we usually think of a place people go to worship. The Lutheran Confessions teach us that the church is the "assembly of all the believers among whom the Gospel is preached in its purity and the Holy Sacraments are administered according to the Gospel." Wow! The church is so much more than a building!

If the church is more than just the building, then why is the building and everything in it so important?

The church building, or the "sanctuary," is a place where God is present. We know that our Lord has promised to come to us in His Sacraments. Since God is actually here with us in His house, we should be very reverent, or respectful. We don't want anything in the church pulling us away from what God gives us in His Word and Sacraments. Everything should direct our attention toward Him.

Parents: Before or after the service, direct your children to the wonderfully Gospel-rich symbolism found in the sanctuary, including the on the altar, windows and banners. Remind them that the Lord truly comes to us here in His Word and Sacraments. He brings us what we really need: the forgiveness of sins.
