Luke 14:11 – “For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.” The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. That’s called humility. The Lord is God, and we are not. With that in mind, how could we not seek to follow His Word in all aspects of life? He knows what He is talking about; we don’t. If you believe that, then striking out on a path of faithfulness in the realm of stewardship is a lot easier. It just makes sense. Stewardship Ministry <https://www.lcms.org/resources>

“A God who marks His covenanted people is telling them something important about the power of sex and its control and its proper place within the divine-human economy: It comes to us as a gift, to be used for its purposes and no other, and its abuse will sully the soul of man. Its proper use in marriage is a great mystery, a great gift which was given for the protection of all. It doesn’t always work out that way, sadly, but its imperfect practice is no excuse for throwing it all away for what we see today.” James M. Kushiner, The Fellowship of St. James – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • www.lutheransforlife.org

Luke 14:1-14: The Scriptures tell us that the Pharisees were watching Jesus very closely. They were watching Him to find mistakes, for any reason to criticize, to see if He could pass their test. Jesus was watching them very closely, and even though they were acting like enemies, Jesus was looking upon them with love. As we look upon the world, we need Jesus’ eyes to be able to see the world with His love and compassion. That’s the labor of love the Lord has given to us as we share the Good News each and every day. Jesus enables us to see the world differently: with grace. As He equips us with the Good News to share, may the Spirit also equip our eyes and hearts with the ability to recognize those who need the Good News the way Jesus does. Witness & Outreach

Choir Practice, will begin on September 11th at 2:30 pm. Practice will be weekly on Wednesdays @ 2:30pm. If you enjoy singing and are looking for an opportunity to worship God by raising your gift in voice, you’re the person we’re looking for. Perfection is NOT required, just a heart to praise our God with voice and song. Come join us. Marilyn Theel, Choir Director

 Lutheran Women in Mission

Lutheran Special Education Ministries In 1976 LSEM began serving children with special learning needs in the Detroit area and has since expanded programs and services to include a presence in Lutheran schools nationwide. Their pilot program is Let It Shine Academy at Bethany Lutheran Church, Austin, Texas. The Teach Me Too program was designed to administer intervention strategies, address the unique needs of children with autism spectrum disorder and other unique needs such as hyperactivity issues, decreased or delayed social skills, developmental or speech delays, sensory integration difficulties, or other learning differences. As a resource for families, this program provides assessments, consultations, and materials to help children on an individual basis. This grant would help fund Teach Me Too, expand the Let It Shine Academy, provide teacher training, and offer scholarship funding for children whose families cannot afford the cost of the Let It Shine Program.

Learn to Square Dance

The Twin City Squares square dance club invites couples, singles, and families interested in square dancing to join them on Sunday, September 8, 2019 from 2:00 – 4:30 P.M. at Merryman School, 611 Elizabeth Ave, Marinette, WI for a free introduction to square dancing. The caller will be Dominic Gruetzmacher. Dominic will call dances for new dancers alternating with dances for experienced dancers. A pot luck supper will be served after the dance.

Square dance lessons will be held starting on Sunday, September 15, 2019 from 1:00 to 3:00 on Sundays when there is no regular dance scheduled and from 1:00 to 2:00 on Sundays when there is a regular dance. New dancers are invited to stay for the regular dance and join club members for supper after the dance. Square dancing is a healthy exercise combined with a fun social gathering. Everyone is welcome, whether you have ever danced before or not. Contact Lloyd and Mary Houle, 906-753-4583 or lloydmaryhoule@yahoo.com for lesson information.
